TUSCANS

of the eighteen-forties now revived in 1956 by Stevens, Shanks & Sons Limited
89 Southwark Street London SE1
WATerloo 5846 & 3653

SCROLL SHADED

ESPAÑA CAÑI

18 pt

BROWN ALE

24 pt

ANGELITA

30 pt

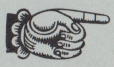
ORNAMENTED OUTLINE

MILD AND BITTER

30 pt

JAZZMEN 1956

the only journal for the real



earth music

JAZZMEN 56

WITH COMPLIMENTS

FIORI

10 BAKER STREET LONDON W1

177/2

'The Tuscan was, as Mr. Morison points out, invented in the 4th century by Pope Damasus I. Its characteristic is that the points of the serifs are extended and curled, probably bifurcating the stem.'